

Senior Leader

Tools to lead at a higher level.

Imagine gathering in a learning community with like-minded top leaders who aspire to a higher level of leadership in the school, nonprofit organization, or congregation they lead. Experience iron sharpening iron as you take your leadership to the next level.

This learning community is specifically designed for Nonprofit Executives, University Administrators, Principals, Heads of Schools, Senior Pastors, and Executive Pastors. Additionally, PLI's Senior Leader features lead staff involvement. When key leaders are learning alongside each other, the journey gets easier.

I am seeking to:

- Increase personal energy to lead
- Build healthy, effective teams
- Create a vibrant organization
- Think more strategically
- Achieve your vision for the future

Through this investment in yourself and your organization, you will learn:

- Self-Leadership
- Staffing Solutions
- Conflict Management
- Adaptive Missional Leadership

Highlights of Senior Leader

- 2-year Learning Community
- Four 4-day training immersions
- Participants from a wide variety of nonprofit organizations
- Sharp focus on advanced leadership skills

Details:

The tuition cost is $3,500 per year.

Reserve your spot with a $200 registration fee.

*Spouses may attend tuition free.

*PLI places a high value on the spouse being esteemed and equipped as the person that God has made and called them to be in their own lives, marriages and jobs. If your spouse holds a leadership role in their own arena or is an integral part of your leadership team, then by all means they are welcome to attend tuition free. We also recognize that some of the content may not apply to your spouse's unique context. We leave it up to your discretion. If you have questions please contact Raechel in PLI Connections. She'll be happy to help you discern what's best for your context.

To learn more visit plileadership.org.

For more information, contact Jim Galvin, Senior Leader Trainer, at (630)240-2749 or jim@galvinandassociates.com.

To register, please contact: Raechel, in PLI Connections, at (630)795-9747 or raechel@plileadership.org.