

GOOD FAITH AGREEMENT

PLI SEEKS TO TRAIN AND INVEST IN MULTIPLYING MISSIONAL LEADERS.

To achieve this mission, PLI utilizes a Good Faith Agreement. This agreement creates a covenant relationship, made in good faith, between you and PLI. This agreement describes what you can expect from PLI and gives you the opportunity to commit to your participation and financial investment. We enter this covenant together based on our faith in Jesus Christ and our mutual desire to see vibrant communities, deeper connections and wider influence for the sake of the Gospel.

PLI commits to provide you with

- Highly supportive, intentional learning communities which provide leadership development, hope, direction, problem-solving and practical steps of implementation for each individual context.
- Meaningful relationships through immersion experiences, unique coaching for each learning community, and access to all of our experience and resources.
- Space to create and implement a leadership and missional plan, unique to your context (community, church, and home) to achieve your Spirit-led goals.

As a participant, you are committing to

- Engage wholeheartedly in immersions and coaching.
- Implement your Spirit-led goals back home.
- Honor your financial commitment to PLI.
- Cover your costs for travel, ground transportation, lodging and some meals out.

COVENANT

This covenant begins with your registration fee and completion of the registration page. This covenant concludes upon your last Learning Community immersion and final payment. We hope that all participants can complete the entire Learning Community experience, but we also understand that unique circumstances arise. If you feel the need to end your participation in PLI please contact your Learning Community Leader. Please acknowledge your understanding of and commitment to this covenant by typing your initials in the box below.

I hereby confirm that I have read, fully understand and commit to this Good Faith Agreement and the financial investment. I, in good faith, agree to fulfill this covenant to the best of my ability.
