

The Specifics

Is this specific to a certain denomination?

The vision of 1000 Young Leaders is to raise up missional leaders to carry the Gospel of Jesus and plant the seeds of God's kingdom across our communities both near and far, breaking down barriers and crossing denominational lines. Every denomination is experiencing the fractured relationship between the millennial generation and the local congregation. Together, the people of God can have larger Kingdom impact and reach the pockets and places where the Gospel is absent.

Who's the right candidate for 1000 Young Leaders?

1000 Young Leaders* is specifically designed for everyday leaders who want to participate in the mission of God. If you're a trade worker, student, entrepreneur, artist, urban inventor, nurse, barista or something in between--this is for you. The content is designed to meet you where you are on your spiritual journey. There is no prerequisite training or degree required, just a heart for being discipled.

Where we fully support and respect the role of church workers, this initiative is for marketplace leaders. If you are church worker seeking to be discipled, check out PLI's other learning communities or consider being a mentor for one or more of our 1000 Young Leaders. Mentors will be trained in and equipped with a more condensed version of the 1000 Young Leader program that will empower the mentor to live missionally in their community as they come alongside young leaders to do the same.

What are the ages of people you are looking for?

*We are seeking everyday leaders between the ages of 20 - 36.

I'm older or younger than 20-36. Are there any exceptions?

Currently the 1000 Young Leader Initiative is specific to this age range. However, we're collecting names. Reach out to us.

PLI highly esteems leaders of all ages and we welcome you to take a look at PLI's other learning communities that beat with the same heart as 1000 Young Leaders. Contact Raechel in PLI Connections at raechel@plileadership.org. Or if you still find yourself drawn to 1000 Young Leaders we'd like to connect you to partnering and mentoring with us.

Does this mean I have to quit my job?

Your journey with 1000 Young Leaders is intended to work with your current job and life context.

I see it's encouraged to be on a team with someone else but I'm single. Can I join 1000 Young Leaders?

Absolutely! We focus on each leader's unique context. The principles of leadership, discipleship and mission that are taught can be applied to any context. However, we see biblical significance in being sent out by two. We deeply encourage you to connect with a friend and journey together.

I'm married. Can I join 1000 Young Leaders? What if my spouse is not interested, but I am all in?

We see biblical significance in being sent out by two. We deeply encourage couples to participate in this initiative together. If your spouse does not choose to participate we strongly encourage you to participate with a friend and journey together.

If I am looking for another team member, who should I be looking for?

In Scripture we see teams of two partnering together for exponential saturation of the Gospel. Ask yourself these questions.

- Who has the same heartbeat and passion for people coming to know Jesus like you?
- Who is a natural leader living in the same community as you?
- Who do you know that builds easy relationships with others and has natural influence?

Have a conversation with them about partnering together.
